

sinclair is using the public airwaves to influence our election process. This is a great example how large corporations are gaining control of news outlets and trying to shape public opinion. It is definitely not healthy for our democracy to allow them to put this anti-Kerry movie on public airwaves directly before an election. At some point the FCC needs to step up to the plate and stop this interference in OUR election.